THE DEPUTY SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20220

January 12, 1982

Dear Bobby:

I would like to express my appreciation for the splendid support that your staff provided recently for our urgent requirements on the Soviet financial scene and the Polish situation.

I realize that our time demands were extraordinary, and under the circumstances your staff's performance was highly competent and most timely. The data and analysis served as important inputs for the information of Treasury staff and myself, as well as for the briefing book prepared for the Secretary prior to his meetings with Chancellor Schmidt and the National Security Council.

Sincerely,

R. T. McNamar
